

In My Life This Week

(As you use this daily guide, write out your observations and responses on a separate piece of paper and save them with this sheet for reference.)

Monday. It goes without saying that this day before Christmas is busy. The fact that you are reading this on this busy day is a mark of dedication. Make sure you read through and think about the Luke 2 account of Christ's birth today as well as truly worshiping God for Jesus, the greatest gift ever given.

Tuesday. On this Christmas Day, enjoy your time with family and friends and continue to honor Christ. Look for opportunities to affirm your faith in and love for Christ to those around you. Keep on announcing His coming!

Wednesday. 'Twas the day after Christmas and ...? How are feeling today? As the Christmas season draws to a close, review the qualities God looks for in His messengers—in you and me. As you review the outline sheet and any notes you made on Sunday, determine to allow God to continue to develop these qualities in you so that you can have His blessing on your witness.

Thursday. Down through the years people have added to, left out, and woven their own ideas into God's message of salvation in Jesus Christ. Simeon was faithful to give both the easy message of praise and the difficult message of judgment, opposition and pain. Let's make sure our message is really God's message.

Friday – Saturday. On Sunday we plan to look at the second letter of John as we prepare for the new year. Read the entire letter (it's only 13 verses) in preparation for our time together.
