In My Life This Week

(As you use this daily guide, write out your observations and responses on a separate piece of paper and save them with this sheet for reference.)

Monday. Christmas is just four days away. Where has the time gone? As you drive around or walk this evening, let the dark sky remind you that, yes, “The whole world was lost in the darkness of sin” (see the references under “Darkness and fallen creation”). So many people all around us are lost in, dominated by sin’s darkness. While you celebrate joyfully, remember, pray for and speak to people who may be celebrating but are lost, without Christ.

Tuesday. “The Light of the world is Jesus!” When you see Christmas lights, streetlights or turn on a light today, remember Jesus is the Light of the world. He is your light. “In Him there is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5). Thank God that by His grace the light of Christ shined into your heart, that He “called you out of darkness into His marvelous light” (1 Peter 2:9).

Wednesday. Jesus, the Light of the world, brings light. Check the references about this on the outline. Jesus brings the light of salvation, but also the light of God’s truth in the Bible, His wisdom, counsel and, finally, all our light when we are with Him forever. Keep on praying, living and speaking the good news of Christ to those you know and care about who are still in the darkness. As uninterested or resistant as they may be right now, keep on being faithful.

Thursday — Saturday. Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and Boxing Day—each full with different things and in different ways. Continue your focus of joy in and thanksgiving to God for Christ through all these events.

On Sunday we return to the series in Romans with 6:1-14. Read and think through these verses about sin and salvation in preparation for our time together.
