In My Life This Week

(As you use this daily guide, write out your observations and responses on a separate piece of paper and save them with this sheet for reference.)

Monday. In chapters 6-8 the apostle Paul writes about salvation and sin based on the wonderful truth of justification by God's grace through faith. Chapter 8 draws conclusions from earlier in this section, and parts of the entire letter to this point. Read 8:1-39 (several times if you have the time) to get or refresh the overall picture.

Tuesday. In saving us by His grace through faith God has given us a new freedom from sin and death. As you review the three points of this we covered on Sunday, think about God's great love, Christ's humility and sacrifice for you and what your freedom in Christ means in light of this. How can you keep from taking this for granted? Thank God now for your freedom in Christ.

Wednesday. When you accepted Christ as your Savior, God gave you a new nature. 2 Corinthians 5:17 tells us "Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come." One Sunday we quickly walked through nine aspects of this new nature. Were there any new insights for you? Thank God for all that He has made you and given you in Christ.

Thursday. While Paul has not yet begun writing about the practical implications of the gospel for how we live, he touches on two in this chapter. What does it mean to live by the Holy Spirit? Is this your conscious and consistent pattern? Are you anticipating, longing for Christ's return and the redemption of your body? These responsibilities should be joyful realities for every Christian.

Friday–Saturday. On Sunday we plan to look at chapter 9. Paul's emphasis changes as he looks at Israel and God's sovereignty. Read and think through the chapter in preparation for our time together.
