In My Life This Week

As you use this daily guide, write out your observations and responses on a separate piece of paper and save them with this sheet for reference.

Monday. As we begin this Christmas week, review our path thus far in Advent... waiting, preparing, rejoicing. Have you been framing this season by these key factors? Have you been counting up to Christmas by counting some of God's promises about the Savior and what they mean to you? It's not too late to start!

Tuesday. On Sunday we talked about God loving us. Among the many things the Bible tells us about God's love, we noted that His love is sacrificial and saving. Review the Bible references listed on the outline and any notes you made. Try writing a letter to God, expressing your thankfulness, praise and awe for His great love to you. This evening we meet for our Christmas service. Prepare to worship with joy and peace.

Wednesday. God has poured out His love to the core of our being (see Romans 5:5). Because He reached out to us and washed away our sin and guilt, we should love Him with all our being, and one of the marks of doing that is obeying Him. It is only as we do this that the closeness and warmth of our relationship with God will increase. What is the state of your love for God in the middle of this Christmas week?

Thursday. Jesus not only commands believers to love one another, He tells us this is a key mark of His followers. What is the state of your love for other believers—all believers, including those you don't understand or those you don't agree with? We are also to love people who are not yet believers (check the references on the outline). How is that to be done? How are you doing?

Friday – Saturday. Sunday we plan to return to our series in the book of Acts, with How to Thrive in an Imperfect Church. Think through 6:1-7 in preparation for our time together.
